

14 November 2011
Dunn County Beekeepers Monthly Meeting

- I. Meeting called to order
- II. Regarding writing a letter to the zoning committee:
 - a. Include idea of someone willing to meet with them
 - b. Incorporate the sample ordinance from Wisconsin Honey Producers
 - c. Ask for a “variance”?
 - d. Mary Lotten and Daniel Winings to work on letter for the February Meeting.
- III. Wisconsin Honey Producers Meeting
 - a. Marlys Spivak and her students had good presentations
 - b. Queen Fund raised over $4500
 - c. Next year’s meeting in Waupaca
 - d. There was an increased turnout for “kids and bees” presentation with ~275 children (and their parents) being introduced to beekeeping.
 - e. Great tours of Cranberry operation
 - f. Sarah Rushfeldt (2012 Honey Queen) explained how the selection process works.
- IV. Secretary and Treasurer Report
- V. February 4th Introduction to Beekeeping Class
 - a. December 12th meeting to discuss presenters
 - b. Extension Office helping with:
 - i. News releases
 - ii. Flyers
 - iii. Publicity
 - iv. Projector
 - v. Handling incoming checks
 - c. Have more vegetable food options
 - d. Need to have a walking tour of the building:
 - i. Seating
 - ii. Acoustics
 - iii. Kitchen
 - e. Cheaper to spiral bind books?
- VI. Meeting Adjourned