

- I. Dale Wolf presentation:
 - Offering an advanced beekeeping workshop on Saturday May 19th at 230 pm.
 - Bring own bee gear for 2-3 hours includes
 - Working a hive & Feeding after dandelion bloom
 - Making divides & Two Queen colonies
 - Foul Brood identification and treatment
 - Mite inspections & Prep for winter
 - Gordon Lauler will present as well.
 - Open house in September or October
 - Honey Supers for sale and will be buying honey
- II. Secretary report read and accepted
- III. Treasurer's report read and accepted
- IV. Old Business
 - a. Extractor purchased and was present for evaluation
 - b. State of the zoning ordinance
 - c. Website updated
 - d. Fair booth #13
- V. How to deal with laying workers
 - a. Try to shake the bees out and use a queen excluder to keep laying worker out.
 - b. Merge with another hive
- VI. How far apart should the wires be for an electric fence?
- VII. Report of Dave Wolske's bees returned from Florida
 - a. Learned to use plenty of straps
 - b. Some small hive beetle
 - c. Six were really strong
 - d. Eight were queen-right.
- VIII. Shared using cream of wheat for ant control
- IX. Bee Reports
 - a. Positive: 13
 - b. Neutral: 4
 - c. Negative: 1

Meeting adjourned.