

Dunn County Beekeepers
11 March 2012

- I. Meeting called to order @ 7:00pm
- II. Secretary's report read and accepted
- III. Treasurer's report read and accepted
  - A. Cash: $120, Checking Account: $2716.17, Savings Account $1649.61 = $4485.78
- IV. Old Business:
  - A. Northwest Beekeepers
    1. Meeting 10:00 am Saturday March 16 @ Knapp Community Center.
    2. $2.00 Admission
    3. Speakers will include: Kami Pellet, Dayton Koth, Gordon Walker, Dale Wolfe.
    4. Many topics covered, including the display at Farm Tech Days
  - B. Dunn County Bee Ordinance
    1. Text Reviewed
    2. Motion to draft a letter to:
      - a: Thank the county board of supervisors for their work
      - b: That we find the proposed ordinance friendly to beekeepers
      - c: Voice our approval of the proposed changes.
    3. Motion passed
    4. Daniel Winings will draft a letter.
    5. Paul Will and Daniel Winings will find a meeting of the Planning, Resource, and Development Committee that they can both attend to personally deliver the letter.
  - C. Expect the packages from Honey Glow the 1st-3rd week of April.
- V. New Business
  - A. Jim Burritt of UW Stout is collecting bees from dead hives to inspect them disease.
    1. If you would like to contribute dead bees, his phone number is 715.232.5048
    2. Daniel Winings will contact Jim to invite him to send an email to Beekeepers@dunncountybeekeepers.org explaining his program.
  - B. Request that we return to putting the meeting minutes on the website.
  - C. Dale Wolfe shared about how to run hives using a single deep brood box.
- VI. Meeting adjourned.

Overheard: "A super of honey makes a super of bees."