Old Business

Fair Booth Committee

Mary had lots to share about potential numbers:

- $50 for admission
- ~~$350 dollars for table skirt, a supply company may have a better deal?~~ (see below)
- Blue Sky- check into this company for another option
- Honey sticks 2000 for $195
- 28 pound box of hard candy is $80
- total $675
- Divinia is going to help with posters. $125 for working poster budget.
- posters from Mann Lake were $95 (from awhile ago)
- thoughts of making a table skirt using vinyl
- Jenny Gruber offered to make table clothes for the tables. THANKS JENNY! ($125 budgeted)
- Motion made to budget $800 for fair booth. Motion Passed

Volunteer info

- Mary B. shared the volunteer list...too much to list! Thank you to all volunteers and we can always use more help!

Menomonie Market

- Mary drafted a letter for the Menomonie Market newsletter (upon their request).
- MM was interested in hosting a beekeeping class. Scott spoke with a representative
- It was suggested that we put a flier on their bulletin board when the class gets nearer. Their facility would be too small for a large group...plus it would be difficult for us to staff such a class as it is a ton of work to prepare.

New Business

Nature Nectar

Jim from Nature's Nectar writes a blog that is informational about what you should be doing with your hives-helpful to new beekeepers.
